

Pre-Booking with Benefits

A generous commission for you, and the best value for your clients when you pre-book their holiday add-ons

Lock in onshore adventures

All pre-booked packages earn commission

The credit can be used on any excursion, including the exclusive Authentic Encounters,* but must be redeemed no less than 48 hours prior to departure.

So make sure your clients secure their space before they sail, and take advantage of pre-booked discount packages that are available.

Just as importantly, you'll get a healthy commission on any shore excursion booked more than 48 hours in advance.

So the more you book, the more you'll earn.

Every guest gets a discount on pre-booked Shore Excursions

Pre-booking makes for smooth sailing

Using the Shore Excursion discount helps your clients' holiday budgets go that bit further. But there are plenty of other reasons to book trips in advance.

Value Guests can save up to:

Booking in advance makes the most of our discount bundles: a very good reason to get itineraries in place before the ship sails.

Peace of mind

Our popular excursions often sell out.

Some have limited availability, many require specific slots and tickets to be validated ahead of time.

Convenience

As a destination cruise line, we spend a lot of time in port.

Which means there isn't much time onboard for guests to plan and organise what's next.

Inclusion

We speak their language. We can arrange expert guides to deliver tours in English, French, German, Spanish, Chinese, Russian, Japanese, and more where available.
